

Item (Generic / Site Specific)				Risk Event	Consequence	Pre-treatment Risk			Treatment	Residual Risk
						L	C	RR		L	C	RR
3.2.	12	4	G	Pedestrians and cyclists travelling too close to the work site and/or disobeying the signage.	Serious injuries.	C	3	M9	Pedestrian and cyclist signage details to be provided as part of the Traffic Management advice. If required, an additional Traffic Management Person is to be used to provided pedestrian and/or cyclist assistance around the work area.	D	3	L6
3.2.	12	5	G	Detours provided for footpath facilities not adequately catering for all vulnerable road users exposing vision and movement impaired pedestrians to unnecessary risks.	Serious injury or fatality.	C	4	H12	Vulnerable Road user detour details to be provided as part of the Traffic Management advice and must ensure that all users have been catered for. Where there are no suitable existing facilities, additional temporary facilities may be provided to render assistance to pedestrians. Traffic Management Personnel must be on site to provide assistance to vulnerable road users.	D	4	M8
3.2.	12	6	G	The implementation of Temporary Traffic Management devices within pedestrian and/or cycling facilities causing unnecessary risks to pedestrians and cyclists resulting in serious injuries.	Serious injuries.	C	3	M9	All signs and devices must be installed clear of any pedestrian or cyclists facilities where possible. Where on-road cyclists facilities are closed, 'Cyclists in lane' signs must be installed on all affected approaches. Where sign positions are moved due to pedestrian facilities, the adjustments must adhere to the tolerances provided. Where absolutely necessary, signs may be placed on the footpath as long as minimum clearances as specified in Section 4.2.1	D	3	L6
3.2.	12	7	G	Removal of pedestrian phasing at signalised intersection during flashing amber operations causing unprotect pedestrian movements resulting in serious injury or fatality.	Serious injury or fatality.	C	4	H12	Additional Traffic Control personnel to be provided at pedestrian facilities to render assistance to all vulnerable road users. TC's may need to hold all approaches to allow pedestrians to cross the road way safely.	D	4	M8