

Contents

1.	Introduction.....	1
1.1	Purpose	1
1.2	Structure of AGTTM	2
1.3	Scope of Part 7	4
1.4	Application of Part 7 to New Zealand	4
1.5	Definitions	4
2.	Traffic Controller Requirements	5
2.1	Introduction to Traffic Control	5
2.2	Authority and Accreditation	5
2.2.1	General	5
2.2.2	Authority of a traffic controller	5
2.2.3	Work health and safety	5
2.2.4	Supervising a traffic controller in training	6
2.3	Fitness for Duty	6
2.3.1	General	6
2.3.2	Eyesight	7
2.3.3	Hearing, speech and vision	7
2.3.4	Mobility, endurance and concentration	7
2.3.5	Learning, literacy and numeracy skills	7
2.3.6	Character and suitability	8
2.3.7	Site climatic conditions	8
2.3.8	Fatigue and hydration	9
2.3.9	Drugs and alcohol	9
2.4	Traffic Controller's Responsibilities	9
2.4.1	General	9
2.4.2	Functions of a traffic controller	9
2.4.3	Responsibilities of a traffic controller	9
2.4.4	Communicating effectively	10
2.4.5	Behaviour and attitude	10
2.4.6	Give definite and clear signals	10
2.4.7	Breaks from traffic controller duties	11
2.5	What to Wear	11
2.5.1	General	11
2.5.2	Clothing to comply with standards	11
2.6	What to Use	12
2.6.1	General	12
2.6.2	Portable traffic control devices	13
2.6.3	Approved equipment for manual control of traffic	15
2.6.4	Communication devices	16
2.6.5	Night works	17
2.6.6	Approved hand signals for traffic controllers	17
2.6.7	When hand signals can be used without additional equipment	17
2.6.8	Departures from standards and innovation	18
2.7	When a Traffic Controller Gets to the Worksite	18
2.7.1	General	18
2.7.2	Pre-start meeting	18
2.7.3	Station set up and positioning	18
2.7.4	Sight distance and sign location	20
2.8	Performing Traffic Control	21
2.8.1	Traffic signals	21
2.8.2	Risk management	22
2.8.3	Always be alert to changing conditions	22